Caverion launches Investor Relations App for iPad

Caverion has launched its Investor Relations application, providing up-to-date investor information on Caverion Corporation in an iPad-optimized format.

The application enables users to have instant mobile access to the latest financial information and reports both online and offline. Features include latest stock exchange and press releases, interim reports and presentations, webcasts and company videos and share price development, among others.

The management presentations from Caverion's Capital Markets Day, held on November 19 in Frankfurt, can also be accessed through the application.

Caverion's Investor Relations App is available for free download at Apple's App Store:
